Nike, Inc. v. StockX LLC, No. 22-cv-983-VEC

Dear Tamar:

I write on behalf of Defendant StockX LLC ("StockX") in connection with the above-referenced matter. Today, we are transmitting via secure file transfer StockX's Rule 26(a)(2) expert disclosures for:

- (1) Scott Duke Kominers,
- (2) Catherine Tucker,
- (3) Robert L. Vigil, and
- (4) Dejongh Wells.

In addition, we are transmitting documents bearing Bates numbers STX0806026 and STX0806025. The files are compressed in a password-protected file; the password for the file is st9COWIyatHic-ltrpl.

Both the expert disclosures and production documents contain materials to which StockX has applied confidentiality designations. These materials are being produced in accordance with the Stipulated Protective Order entered in this case on July 14, 2022 (ECF No. 52).

StockX has not knowingly included in this transmittal any documents or information protected by the attorney-client privilege, the work product doctrine, or any other applicable privilege or protection. In the event that such material is inadvertently produced by StockX, such production is not intended to be a waiver of any privilege or protection. In the event that you believe that StockX may have inadvertently revealed privileged or otherwise protected information, we ask that you cease review of those materials immediately and notify us.

StockX reserves all rights to supplement, revise, or amend its Rule 26 expert disclosures.

Please call me at (212) 909-6760 if you have any questions or technical issues.

Best regards,

/s/ Kathryn C. Saba
